

Prayers for the week of May 31, 2022

GENERAL PRAYERS

- Prayers for all health care workers providing to the needs of our community.
- Prayers of gratitude for all the care givers who are providing care for the children and watching out for their well-being.
- Prayers for all those who protect and serve.
- Prayers that we see the violence stop in our cities, our neighborhoods, our country.

THANKSGIVING

- For the many ways that God is active in the world.

COMFORT AND STRENGTH IN THE CANCER JOURNEY

- Gail Harless as she recovers.
- Chuck Halfen.
- Diane Halfen.
- Debbie Nelson, sister of Ms. Stephanie, our lead toddler teacher.
- Rhiannon, friend of Stefanie Okeson.
- Ken Anderson, son of Betty Corum.
- Charlie Wallin.
- Bob Rugar.
- Eric, nephew of Mary Gookins.
- Dagny Rekaa, cousin of Kathy Okeson, metastatic cancer.

COMFORT WHILE ON HOSPICE

- Continued prayers of comfort and peace for Glen Corum who is in hospice. Prayers for Betty and family as they walk with him.

COMFORT IN GRIEF

- Prayers for the family and friends of Al Radtke who passed away on May 10. Al is Sharon Kari's dear brother. May God's love bring comfort to all of Al's loved ones.
- Family and friends of Dylan Marshall, the 15 year old battling leukemia, who lost the fight. Prayers of comfort and peace.

HEALING, RECOVERY or FACING OTHER ISSUES

- Prayers for Dee Eckert.
- Prayers for Shelley Cape.
- Nora Grimes and her family as they deal with her seizure disorder.
- Ruth and Marlin Lackas, as they continue to heal and gain strength.