

STEWARDSHIP FOR ALL SEASONS

Hosanna is a remarkably generous community of people—in so many beautiful ways! We are a people deeply committed to Jesus, devoted to our church, and filled with a passion to serve and care for our neighbors. Your faithful generosity has already allowed us to make much-needed improvements to our building and stay ahead of important maintenance, ensuring our church remains a welcoming home for all. Our lives truly are organized around our mission, knowing that as we live, love, and serve, others will see God through us and come to know His incredible goodness.

As we continue to fulfill our commitments to our capital campaign, we also prepare for the impending retirement of our Finance Manager, Roxanne Anderson, and our Office Manager, Julie Coozenoy. We are so incredibly grateful for their years of dedicated service, and although we are sad to see them go, we celebrate this new stage of life with them. Looking ahead, we are turning our attention to the next chapter of our ministry: investing in our staff and continuing to expand our reach. We want Hosanna to remain a place run efficiently and conscientiously, always with the intentional goal of growing disciples who share the Gospel and love our neighbors.

So many of us have had our lives deeply changed through the Word of God, the warmth of this community, and the transformative discussions held within these walls. Together, we want this life-changing impact to continue for generations to come.

Today, I invite you to reflect on what it means to care for one another, for creation, and for our church in every season of the year and every stage of life. As you consider your own commitment to our church family, I encourage you to pray about how you might help us build up the body of Christ and reach even more hearts. One of the most powerful ways we can live out our discipleship is by simply inviting our families, friends, and neighbors to Hosanna, so they too can experience our wonderful community and see God at work among us.

I also ask you to join me in praying about what it will take for us to keep our church vibrant, relevant, and meaningful in today's fast-paced world. For over fifty years, through every up and down, we have built a beautiful foundation of relationship and faith together here at Hosanna. What a gift that is! To sustain this vital mission, I ask you to prayerfully consider supporting Hosanna with your time, your unique talents, and your financial gifts. Every single contribution is vital to our shared life and future.

We value you immensely as an essential part of this family. We hope you deeply value what we do here and, above all, why we do it. Thank you for your continued partnership, your faith, and your open hearts.

God's richest blessings,
Pastor Kris
