Sponsorship Recognition Packages

All event proceeds benefit United Way of Hernando County's Dolly Parton Imagination Library which provides free, age appropriate books every month to all enrolled Hernando pre-school children. This is in preparation for kindergarten, regardless of their family's economic status. Your sponsorship will sponsor children on the program to receive free books mailed directly to their house every single month for the next year, cover event costs and program coordination, as well as additional education initiatives. As this program continues to grow, we are on a constant mission to raise additional awareness & support to increase the number of children enrolled.
