

ALEX AND CHRISTINA CONSTANTINE

Alex and Christina Constantine have been members of St. Nicholas in Lexington for the past 3.5 years. Christina has enjoyed assisting with the parish's Oratorical Festival and family nights, while Alex has been blessed to lend his voice at the chant stand. Alex and Christina strive with their young family to participate as fully as possible in the life of the church. The Constantines live on Hanscom AFB, where Alex is currently assigned as a USAF Officer. Alex is an eighteen-year veteran of the USAF and has been stationed throughout the US and overseas. He has chanted since the mid-nineties, receiving tonsure as a reader from Metropolitan Anthony in 2002. Alex met and married Christina at Sts. Constantine and Helen in Newport News, VA, where Christina served five years as the parish's Director of Youth Ministries. Christina also worked as a high school English teacher before her current vocation as a stay-at-home mom to the couple's two daughters. The Constantines are aware Uncle Sam won't keep them in New England forever, but they will always cherish St. Nicholas as the place where their daughters were baptized and where they were so warmly welcomed as a family.
