

PRAYER LIST

Pondering on the words of St. Paul, "Let no one seek his own, but each one the other's wellbeing. (I Cor. 10:24).

Give rest to the weary, visit the sick, support the poor, for this is also worship. Aphahat

For any prayer concern (salvation, health, employment, stress and anxieties, etc.) please send baptismal names only to:
st.nicholas.lex@verizon.net

We may not be able to help others materially or medically, but God does hear our prayers and always asks us to pray for each other and so build up the Body of Christ (Eph. 4:11-16).

Share your Holy Week and Pascha photos with your Parish Family

Every year we receive beautiful photos from the Holy Week services. This year we would also like to challenge you to capture any or all of the following by using your phones for video or photos:

- The reactions of a person or a group of people as they chant "Christ is Risen" for the first time during the Anastasis Service
- What our church looks like before and after services on: Palm Sunday evening, Holy Thursday evening, Holy Friday afternoon/evening, Holy Saturday morning, and Holy Pascha morning
- A prayerful moment
- How our parish family spends time together during Holy Week.
Here are a few examples:
 - Saturday of Lazarus
 - Folding Palm Crosses, Parish clean up
 - Getting the Eggs ready for Pascha
 - Great and Holy Friday Retreat
 - Walking outside on both Great and Holy Friday and Saturday
 - Paschal Meal following the Resurrectional Vigil?

A Holy Week and Pascha traditions are so great and unique and we want YOU to help us capture these moments!!!

GODPARENT SUNDAY

*April 15, 2018
(The Sunday after Pascha!)*

All Godparents are invited to attend the Divine Liturgy on Sunday, April 15,

To pray with their Godchildren and to Receive Holy Communion with them.

*Be in Church on this special day and Let the Godparents thank the Lord for their Godchildren,
And let the Godchildren renew their love and devotion for the Lord and their Godparents.*

We also encourage all Godparents to attend Church School with their Godchildren.

There will also be a special brunch for all to enjoy in the Church Hall.
