

My seventh Pan Mass Challenge ride has arrived and although my sixth ride was a bit different from past PMC rides the PMC family “Reimagined” the weekend.

Cancer does not recognize pandemics or quarantines, so in the eyes of cancer, this past year was business as usual.

I realize there are endless charitable causes seeking our support, all of which are just as important as the PMC ride. I hope you will consider supporting my ride in the Pan Mass Challenge again in 2020.
