

Detectives Bureau:

2004-0864: Attempted murder investigation on the 600 block of Chestnut Street. Malcom Wilcox fired several rounds at a victim as the victim was driving away from the area. Detectives interviewed the victim and reviewed video surveillance footage of the incident. Through investigation, detectives identified the suspect as Malcom Wilcox. A warrant for Wilcox's arrest was entered into the national database for attempted murder. Sacramento Police located Wilcox and tried to take him into custody. Wilcox fired rounds at Sacramento Police and a gun battle ensued. Sacramento Police were able to take Wilcox into custody on our warrant, and fresh charges of attempted murder on police officers.

Detectives wrote 5 search warrants and 1 ramey warrant.

30 active cases with 10 cleared. Active cases include a carjacking, a robbery, a couple a shootings, several sexual assault cases and numerous financial crimes cases.