

Detectives Bureau:

Detectives assisted patrol with a robbery investigation at a local restaurant. The case is still active and search warrants were generated in support of this case. This is one of many cases in which detectives utilize new age technology to assist them in their investigations. As the technology increases, our detectives will continue to utilize it in order to solve cases and bring justice to victims of crimes.

32 active cases with 24 cleared.