1 Peter

Martin Luther had some favorite books in the New Testament. He believed they distilled the message about Jesus Christ. 1 Peter was one of those books. He wrote this:

“...in them you do not find many works or miracles of Christ described, but you do find depicted in masterly fashion how faith in Christ overcomes sin, death, and hell, and gives life.” (Luther's Works, Vol. 35, p. 362.)

Each Thursday morning over the next 8 weeks we will be studying 1 Peter. It is a book encouraging Christians under great cultural and civil pressure to remain faithful. It is a book for the 21st Century. Western Christianity is experiencing change that may call us all to be more faithful in ways we could not have imagined in the 20th Century.
