

Oregon's Mt. Hood Territory: On-Site Information

Above: Location of Estacada and informational portal kiosk at the gateway to Hwy 224.

Below: State stewardship information and asset map (left) and local information (right) posted at the portal.

The tourism portal in Estacada was well positioned to provide information to people traveling the newly reopened Hwy 224. Mt. Hood Territory worked with Visit Estacada to ensure that the open recreation asset map was posted there, along with inspiration of things to do in nearby communities to optimize economic impacts to recovering areas.

Oregon's Mt. Hood Territory: On-Site Information

Above: Cyclist consults the asset map at the entrance to reopened Hwy 224

Our open recreation asset map and additional safety information is also posted roadside at the entrance to the reopened section of Hwy 224, serving many types of recreational visitors.