

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT MARCH 30, 2025

A Scripture Reflection.....

The Parable of the Prodigal Son is unique to the Gospel of Luke, and it is among the best known and the most beloved of all parables. It also happens to be the longest! Like all parables it is directed at a specific audience, who initially are unaware that the parable is about them. The Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." To them Jesus addressed this parable, "A man had two sons..." The younger son approaches the father and brashly asks for his share of the inheritance. According to Mosaic Law, the elder son was entitled to two thirds of the estate and the younger son to one third. Once in possession of his share, the younger son takes off without so much as a thank you or goodbye. He distances himself further from his father by heading for a foreign land where the moral bankruptcy of his choices brought him to the brink of death. "Coming to his senses" he decided to "arise" and return to his father's house. All the while, he hopes to be accepted back as nothing more than a hired hand.

"While he was a long way off, his father caught sight of him, filled with compassion, he ran to his son..." In one of the most touching scenes in the Bible, the father embraces and kisses his son, clothes him with the finest robe, puts a ring on his finger and shoes on his feet. The father then orders the slaughter of the fattened calf so that they might celebrate, because "this son of mine was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found."

Meanwhile on returning from the fields, the elder son hears the merriment coming from the house and asks a servant the reason. Hearing his brother has returned and his father is celebrating his return with a banquet, he grows angry and refuses to enter the celebration. As was the case with the younger son, the father takes the initiative in the healing process and rushes out to reason with the elder son.

The elder son is in no mood to be placated. Angry, jealous, and feeling overworked and underappreciated, he unleashes a string of deep-seated resentments against his father that most likely have festered within him for years. Somehow, he has failed to realize his father's overwhelming love for him.

The parable ends, purposely leaving unanswered whether the elder son ever seeks to be reconciled with his father and brother? As with last week's parable about the Barren Fig Tree, this week's parable is left open-ended urging us to see ourselves in this living Word of God. Our personal story is not finished yet. Accordingly, the open-ended parable urges us to make our own personal life choice. There is a little of both the elder and younger son in each of us, but there is not enough of the Father in any of us. We choose how our own life will end, because love is a choice.

Fr Michael Hughes, O.S.A.

Stewardship Thought for the Week

*"No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan." -
JOSHUA 5:12*

Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land the manna ceased. Likewise, God's blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.

Happy Spring

A SEASON FOR SLOWING DOWN

PROTECTING CROPS FROM NATURAL DISASTERS IN BANGLADESH

Shadadat's village, and much of Bangladesh, is located on flat lowlands. The intense rainy season causes flooding that often destroys farms and crops. Find out how Shahadat learned new farming skills from a Catholic Relief Services program that enabled him to increase the yield of his vegetable crops despite the challenges of climate change. Visit crsricebowl.org/week-4 to read this week's Story of Hope.

You can pick up your Rice Bowls either in the Villanova Church or Rosemont Chapel. Additional Rice Bowls will be available in the parish office lobby.

If you wish to donate to the CRS Rice Bowl, please remit a check made out to St. Thomas of Villanova Parish with a notation indicating that this is intended for CRS Rice Bowl.

You can drop off your donation in our weekly collection basket at the Villanova Church or the Rosemont Chapel. You can also mail or drop off your donation at the Parish Center.

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES

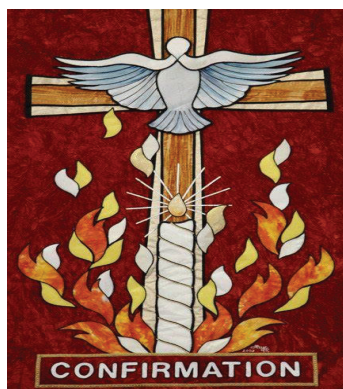

Amina Bukar, a mother of five, is a well-respected leader and small business owner in Muna Moforo, Nigeria. In her village nutrition group, she teaches mothers how to prepare nutrient-rich porridge for their children to help them grow strong and healthy.

This is important because in Nigeria, more than 25 million people face extreme hunger and lack access to nutritious food.

Visit www.crsricebowl.org/stories-of-hope for more Stories of Hope.

If you would like to get involved with CRS at the parish level, please email service@stvparish.org to find out more about our parish CRS chapter, a joint effort with our sister parish, St. Cyprian.

A gentle reminder to all of our wonderful parishioners, let us all be good stewards to work together to keep our churches looking beautiful. Please remember to place the gathering books and supplemental Augustinian binders neatly back into the hymnal racks at the end of Mass.

Simple Ways for Busy Families to Observe Lent – 2025

St. Thomas of Villanova Family Life

We are already two weeks into Lent and life is busy, even during this special season. The practices and homework and other obligations don't pause. So how can families enter into this season while still keeping up with busy lives?

Here are a few ideas:

1. Try a new meatless recipe on Fridays during Lent.
2. Go through your house and donate one bag of clothes or unused items to those in need. Cradles to Crayons is a great organization and they have Bins nearby. (www.cradlestocrayons.org)
3. Cut back on your screen time as a family.
4. Fast from unkind words and gossip.
5. Keep a family gratitude journal. This can be as simple as sharing out loud one thing you are grateful for each day, putting out a small book or piece of paper and writing it down, or using a chalkboard you already have.
6. Volunteer together one time during Lent as a family.
7. Buy a pack of socks and drop them off here at STV for the Joy of Sox.
8. Consider attending the Stations of the Cross one Wednesday evening. They are held at 7:00pm in the Rosemont Chapel.
