

The Rev. Nathan Walton is the Co-Lead Pastor at East End Fellowship, a multi-ethnic, economically diverse Christian church located in the East End of Richmond, Virginia. He holds an MDiv from Duke Divinity School, and a BA and a PhD in religious studies from the University of Virginia.

His interests include community development, theology, and parish ministry. Nathan and his wife, Diamond, have two daughters, Esperanza and Vera Mae, and they live in Church Hill.