The Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts my surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Reading

Isaiah 43:16-21

Thus says the Lord, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: “Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild animals will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.”

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Response Psalm 126

BCP 782

At the 8:15 service, the congregation reads responsively as directed by the lector.

At the 10:30 service, the cantor sings the first verse, and all join in to sing the remaining verses.

In convertendo

- 1 When the Lord restored the / fortunes of Zion, *
then were we like / those who dream.
- 2 Then was our mouth / filled with laughter, *
and our tongue with / shouts of joy.
- 3 Then they said a-/mong the nations, *
"The Lord has done great / things for them."
- 4 The Lord has done great / things for us, *
and we are / glad indeed.
- 5 Restore our / fortunes, O Lord, *
like the watercourses / of the Negev.
- 6 Those who / sowed with tears *
will reap with / songs of joy.
- 7 Those who go out weeping, / carrying the seed, *
will come again with joy, / shouldering their sheaves.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the / Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. / A-men.

The Second Reading

Philippians 3:4b-14

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard every-thing as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and
