Henrico Parish

The Fifth Sunday After the Epiphany

February 10, 2019

8:15 a.m. & 10:30 a.m.

Holy Eucharist, Rite II

Welcome to St. John's Church. We are glad you are here. If you are new to us today and have any questions about our worship, do not hesitate to ask our ushers or one of our members in the pews. Here is some information to assist you:

The Nursery is located in the Parish Hall and is available during both services.

Children's Chapel School-aged children are invited to spend the first part of the 10:30 a.m. service in Children's Chapel in the Keeper's Cottage. Ask an usher for directions. Children are always welcome to remain in church during service.

Children's activity backpacks are available in the back of the church. Help yourself, and enjoy! Ask an usher if you need help.

Restrooms are located in the Parish Hall and behind the church.

The Book of Common Prayer is red.

The Hymnal is blue. Numbers preceded by "S" are in the front of the hymnal. There is no music at the 8:15 a.m. service.

Communion—Everyone is welcome to take communion; this is Christ's table.

Individual Prayers—During communion at the 10:30 a.m. service you may go to the side altar for prayer with a prayer minister.

Food and Beverages—We thank you for not eating or drinking in the church.

Large Print Copies of the Bulletin and Book of Common Prayer are available. Please ask an usher for one.

Our Mission

We are a caring, spiritual community, joyfully embracing and nurturing all;
serving God, each other, and the community.

The Collect of the Day

Set us free O God, from the bondage of our sins, and give us the liberty of that abundant life which you have made known to us in your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Isaiah 6:1-13

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!" And he said, "Go and say to this people: 'Keep listening, but do not comprehend; keep looking, but do not understand.' Make the mind of this people dull, and stop their ears, and shut their eyes, so that they may not look with their eyes, and listen with their ears, and comprehend with their minds, and turn and be healed." Then I said, "How long, O Lord?" And he said: "Until cities lie waste without inhabitant, and houses without people, and the land is utterly desolate; until the Lord sends everyone far away, and vast is the emptiness in the midst of the land. Even if a tenth part remain in it, it will be burned again, like a terebinth or an oak whose stump remains standing when it is felled." The holy seed is its stump.

People Thanks be to God.

The Response Psalm 138

At the 8:15 service, the congregation reads responsively as directed by the lector.

BCP 793

At the 10:30 service, the congregation sings the metrical setting of the psalm to Conditor alme siderum.

1. We give you thanks with all our hearts;
before the gods our praise express and bow ourselves before your throne
to praise your love and faithfulness.
2. Above all things, O Lord our God,
you glorified your Name and word;
we called on you, you answered us, and gave us increased strength, O Lord.
3. The kings of earth who hear your words,
O Lord, will give you thanks and praise and tell how great your glory is,
and they will sing of all your ways.
4. You, Lord, are high yet scorn the proud,
protect the lowly on their path;
and though we walk in trouble, Lord,
you keep us all secure from wrath.
5. Your right hand, Lord, shall save our lives and make your purpose for us sure;
do not forsake those you have made;
your love forever will endure.

The Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Now I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you—unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them—though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn "Will you come and follow me?"

The Holy Gospel Please stand

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Nicene Creed

The Prayers of the People Please stand for the Prayers of the People.

During this season of light and revelation, we gather in prayer as God continues to reveal God's self to us.

O God, creator of life and giver of gladness, let us be your Beacon on the Hill, shining your light so brightly that others may come to know you, to love, and to be loved. Help us to reach out to those around us, bearing fruit through acts of kindness, welcome, and fellowship. Lord, in your goodness:

Grant us your light.

Empower your church, O Lord, and grant us the grace and strength to bear your gifts of love and light to all we meet. Lord, in your goodness:

Grant us your light.

Draw all nations and leaders together, O Lord, in peace, in compassion, and in unity. During this protracted period of uncertainty for our government employees, temper the politics of our elected officials, and grant us the courage to hold them accountable. Lord in your goodness:

Grant us your light.

Let your justice and mercy flow down like a river upon all nations and peoples. Lord, in your goodness:

Grant us your light.

Give us loving hearts to welcome the travelers and the seekers who still follow your star today. Lord, in your goodness:

Grant us your light.

Open our hearts to hear the voices of the oppressed, the sick, the addicted, the hungry, the poor, the silent, and the silenced so that we may serve them in your name. Lord, in your goodness:

Grant us your light.

Visit all who struggle in sickness, in fear, in doubt, or trouble of any kind, especially Annie, Devon, Sidney, Steve, Eric, Jan, Ellen, Kim, Peyton, Robbie, Becky, Faye, Andy, Paul, Doug, and Nizar, and grant them your mercy and care. Lord, in your goodness:

Grant us your light.

We remember the dead and the dying especially Kelly Dixon, whom remember this morning with the flowers at the altar, and Virginia State Trooper Lucas B. Dowell. Lord, who was killed in the line of duty last week. Lord in your goodness.

Grant us your light.

Hear us, O Lord, as we name those on our minds and in our hearts, either silently or aloud. A moment of silence is observed while we name those for whom we pray.

Lord, in your goodness:

Grant us your light.

The Celebrant concludes with a collect
