

Holy Rosary School
25 E. 15th Street
Antioch, CA 94509
(925) 757-1270 Fax (925) 757-9309
www.holyrosarycatholicschool.org

Cristopher Crisologo holds a Bachelors of Science degree in Business Administration and a Masters of Arts degree in Psychology. He is currently in the process of completing his teaching credential at Brandman University. Mr. Crisologo transferred from St. Joseph School in Pinole, teaching third grade. His experience includes working with young adults and families at La Paloma High School in Brentwood. Mr. Crisologo is a parishioner of Holy Rosary Church. He feels that it is his ministry to inspire youth towards achieving their goals, hopes and dreams through education and faith. He is currently travelling in Vietnam, but has shared that he is eager to meet everyone and be a part of the 8th grade journey with his students.

Mr. Crisologo will be teaching 8th grade Homeroom, 7th & 8th grade English Language Arts, and 8th grade Religion.

Jessica Lejano grew up in Concord, California. She went to Diablo Valley College and then transferred to CSU East Bay where she received her bachelor's degree. She is in the process of completing her teaching credential requirements. She has experience teaching math, science and language arts. Ms. Lejano has experience working with all age groups, kindergarten through twelfth grade. Prior to her joining the Holy Rosary team, she taught at the Antioch Unified School District for two years. She has a passion for learning and teaching.

Ms. Lejano comes from a huge family. When she is not at school teaching, you will find her shopping with her sisters or eating ice cream with her niece and nephew. Occasionally you will catch Ms. Lejano at the gym working out with her brother. Her favorite colors are blue and purple. She enjoys watching basketball and attending hockey games. Ms. Lejano's favorite pass time is taking mini trips to Santa Cruz to visit the boardwalk and eat at her favorite restaurants. She enjoys dancing, kickboxing, eating a lot of sushi and taking hikes on Mount Diablo.

Ms. Lejano is extremely excited for the new school year. She looks forward to meeting all of you on the first day!

Ms. Lejano will be teaching 8th grade Homeroom, 7th & 8th grade English Language Arts, and 8th grade Religion.

Holy Rosary Elementary School, a ministry of Holy Rosary Church, rooted in the Dominican tradition of study, prayer and truth provides a quality Catholic education and a foundation for higher learning and service within a diverse community. We, in partnership with our families, are a faith community which shares its love of God and instills high academic values. We guide students to an understanding of who they are and an appreciation for what they can contribute to the world.

Accredited by Western Catholic Education Association & Western Association of Schools and Colleges

Holy Rosary School
25 E. 15th Street
Antioch, CA 94509
(925) 757-1270 Fax (925) 757-9309
www.holyrosarycatholicschool.org

Bertha Proctor attended Los Medanos College (LMC) then transferred to CSU East Bay, where she was awarded her degrees in mathematics as well as her teaching credential. She has been an educator for the past 23 years, primarily as a middle school math teacher in Pittsburg, but also as a community college (LMC) math instructor. She is eager to work with our students and help them achieve their goals. She especially hopes to instill a love for math where there may have been trepidation.

Mrs. Proctor enjoys hiking and camping with her husband and their two children. They can also be found having fun at Cub Scout, church and school activities throughout the year. She also enjoys reading and working on puzzles (jigsaw and sudoku). Mrs. Proctor will be teaching 4th – 8th grade Math, Prealgebra & Algebra.

Christine Hayr is celebrating her 9th year at Holy Rosary as a parent of two boys and as a volunteer. She is excited to take on a role as full-time Instructional Assistant in 2nd Grade. Mrs. Hayr graduated from California State University, Chico with a bachelor's degree in Liberal Studies and an emphasis in Child Development. She is continuing her education this year as she completes the CalState Teach Credential program. Her experience as a parent volunteer, substitute teacher and instructional assistant will help her guide our students to success!

My name is Luiza Marshall. I graduated with a Bachelors of Science in Liberal Studies with a focus on Child Development from California State University. I am currently working toward my credential certificate at CalStateTEACH. Together with a team of amazing and creative teachers, I am committed to providing your family with a loving and developmentally sound foundation for a lifetime of learning. I will strive to create and maintain an environment where your child can grow and thrive while exploring the world around them. Thank you for sharing your precious children with us! Mrs. Marshall came to us in January 2019. She will be teaching 5th grade.

Holy Rosary Elementary School, a ministry of Holy Rosary Church, rooted in the Dominican tradition of study, prayer and truth provides a quality Catholic education and a foundation for higher learning and service within a diverse community. We, in partnership with our families, are a faith community which shares its love of God and instills high academic values. We guide students to an understanding of who they are and an appreciation for what they can contribute to the world.

Accredited by Western Catholic Education Association & Western Association of Schools and Colleges