

Our current policy is to require proof of vaccination. If you're on the current Vaccination List, you won't need to show your card again. If you haven't been attending, please bring your card. Masks and social distancing are optional. Please stay home if you're not feeling well, and tune in via Zoom. We look forward to seeing you!