

Please join us for a program featuring the premiere of the documentary:

In my Father's Footsteps

The story of the courage of a Christian sergeant who saved 200 Jewish American lives in WWII.

Thursday, March 28

5:15 - 7:15 p.m.

Location: College of Liberal Arts, Towson University, Room 2110

Stanlee Stahl

Sergeant Roddie Edmonds

Guest speaker Stanlee Stahl, Executive Vice President of the Jewish Foundation for the Righteous, will speak about rescuers of Jews during the Holocaust. Stanlee will discuss the award winning documentary In My Father's Footsteps: The story of the courage of a Christian sergeant who saved 200 Jewish American lives in WWII. To watch a short clip from the documentary, go to: www.jfr.org/video-library/footsteps-of-my-father/

For further information, please contact Dr. Hana Bor at hbor@towson.edu or 410-802-2218 / 410-704-5026.

This program is sponsored by the Peggy Meyerhoff Pearlstone Professorship at the College of Liberal Arts.

