

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS

The Old Testament

Isaiah 9:1-4

1 But there will be no gloom for those who were in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations. 2 The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined. 3 You have multiplied exultation; you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. 4 For the yoke of their burden and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian.

The Gospel

Matthew 4:12-23

12 Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. 13 He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, 14 so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: 15 “Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the gentiles—16 the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned.” 17 From that time Jesus began to proclaim, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.” 18 As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishers. 19 And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fishers of people.” 20 Immediately they left their nets and followed him. 21 As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. 22 Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him. 23 Jesus went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

“And who knows if perhaps you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?” — Esther 4:14

FATSAT (For a Time Such as This) meets every second Sunday following 11am worship in the classroom across the alley.

Prayer

8:30 am Nancy Heavey; 11 am Nick Cox

Song "Hope of the World" Georgia Elma Harkness 1954 *

Hope of the world, O Christ of great compassion: speak to our fearful hearts by conflict rent; Save us, your people, from consuming passion, who by our own false hopes and aims are spent.

Hope of the world, God's gift from highest heaven, bringing to hungry souls the bread of life: Still let your Spirit unto us be given to heal earth's wounds and end all bitter strife.

Hope of the world, afoot on dusty highways, showing to wandering souls the path of light: Walk now beside us, lest the tempting byways lure us away from you to endless night.

Hope of the world who by your cross did save us
From death and deep despair, from sin and guilt:

We render back the love your mercy gave us; take now our lives and use them as you will.

Hope of the world, O Christ, o'er death victorious,

Who by this sign did conquer grief and pain:

We would be faithful to your gospel glorious; you are our Lord, and you forever reign!
