

Below is an example of documentation that could support G2211. The AAP has not said that additional documentation is required, but it usually never hurts to support a billable charge with documentation.

As the patient's primary care provider, I have a longitudinal care relationship with this patient that is ongoing. There is added complexity to today's visit as I am responsible for the ongoing management and coordination of the patient's medical care.

Mary Suhr
mary.suhr@m2revenue.com

RCM Business Operations
Director RCM Business Operations Director
Revenue Cycle Coding Strategies · Full-time