

Meet and Greet with Solomon's United Church of Christ and Toni Buffalo

Solomon's United Church of Christ, Chambersburg will be hosting a meet and greet with Toni Buffalo on Thursday, June 29th beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Toni is the executive director of the Dakota Association of the United Church of Christ, and on the board of CAIM (Council on American Indian Ministries) of the UCC. She is a native of and resides on the Cheyenne River Reservation in South Dakota, serving with her husband, Pastor Byron Buffalo, at Bridger UCC. Her daughter Tiana participated in the first Partners in Peace Experience in 2013. Toni has been active in the opposition against the Keystone and Dakota Pipelines, and has served in various capacities throughout the United Church of Christ over the years.

She will be here to tell her story and answer your questions.

The evening will begin with a covered dish dinner, so if you're able bring a food offering. Again, it's at 6:30 on the 29th of June.

To let us know that you're attending, or if you have questions email:
solomonsucc@embarqmail.com.