

CRN

I WISH I WOULD HAVE DONE SOMETHING

PURPOSE

---

Learn how to effectively and sensitively intervene when someone is being verbally or physically harassed.

BACKGROUND

---

We all know that bias and intolerance happens in our communities, but sometimes it is difficult to know how best to respond or to prevent it. This workshop will use scenarios and small group interaction to assist participants in reacting effectively and safely.

EVENT DATE

---

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 2, 2017 • 6:00 P.M. TO 8: 00 P.M.

ST. PAUL'S UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

AN OPEN AND AFFIRMING CONGREGATION WITHIN THE UCC

626 WILLIAMS GROVE ROAD

MECHANICSBURG, PA 17055

RSVP by emailing the church office at stpaulstaff@outlook.com or calling the church office at 717.766-7931

Questions: Email Shirley Keith Knox at skeithknox@comcast.net

PRESENTERS

---

THE PRESENTERS ARE MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNITY RESPONDERS NETWORK (CRN)

The CRN is a grassroots coalition committed to confronting and preventing incidents of bias in Central PA. Membership represents a diverse group of faith communities, non-profit organizations, educational institutions, government entities and community members.

THERE IS NO COST TO ATTEND, BUT A 'GOODWILL' OFFERING TO BENEFIT THE CRN WILL BE RECEIVED
