

For Spouses & Partners of Clergy:

Wondering how to establish or redefine your roles, without losing “you”?

Have questions, but no safe place to find real answers?

Looking for connection, wisdom & hope?

You don't have to go it alone!

Artos Retreats and Samaritan Counseling Center invite you to a discussion group exclusively for spouses and partners of clergy.

- Clergy Spouse Facilitator
- On Zoom (confidential, not recorded)
- Interdenominational
- Small – max eight people
- Each facilitated session = 1 hour
- 6 sessions, beginning November, 2021

Come for the first two FREE sessions of facilitated discussion about common real-life questions, situations and shared wisdom. Stay for the next four sessions, customized and facilitated according to the group's desired direction.

Fee $20*/session.

Assistance available upon request.*

Choose a discussion group:

Semi-monthly: 1st & 3rd Tuesdays at 7 pm

OR

Monthly: 1st Saturdays at 9:30 am

Deadline for registration:

October 22, 2021

REGISTER NOW!

Contact either:

Julie Anderman,
Executive Director, Artos Retreats
Julie@ArtosRetreats.org
(717) 492-4238

David Miron,
Coordinator, Clergy & Congregation Care
Samaritan Counseling Center
dmiron@scclanc.org
(717) 560-1949 x 108

Meet your experienced facilitator:

Julie Anderman

Executive Director, Artos Retreats
Certified professional coach
Clergy spouse over 20 years

