May Discussion Questions

(a companion piece to the Morsels video)

- Do a physical walk-through of your property from car to door to nursery or restroom. What areas might need attention?
- After you look over your Web presence, ask a friend to take a look and give you honest feedback. Be sure you have the right people maintaining and updating these sites.
- Do you train your greeters or are they the same volunteers that have been doing it for years so obviously they are really good at it? What training might make them even better?
