

Mount Gretna Tabernacle 2018

At 3rd Street and Glossbrenner Avenue in Mount Gretna, Pennsylvania 17064

The Friday Nights in June Ecumenical Series

GOD IS" is the common theme for Friday night worship services during June at the Mt. Gretna Tabernacle. If you work weekends, join us for the fellowship. If you are curious about other denominations join us to hear a different emphasis. If you need a spiritual boost, join us at a different time and setting. But you do not need a reason to come, enjoy and learn.

JUNE 1 at 7 PM "GOD Is...Surprising", Ret. Pastor Jim Goudie and Rusty, former Pastor of Mt. Gretna United Methodist Church, Mount Gretna

June 8 at 7 PM "GOD Is...Looking for Exorcists", Rev. Dr. Stephen McKinney-Whitaker, Derry Presbyterian Church, Hershey, PA

June 15 at 7 PM "GOD Is...Full of Grace and Truth", Pastor John Ludwig, Jr., Fontana Chapel, United Christian Church, Fontana, PA

June 22 at 7 PM "GOD Is...In Control", Pastor Brian Messler, Ephrata Church of the Brethren, Ephrata, PA

June 29 at 7 PM "God Is...Therefore We Are", Rev. Holly Millershank, Director of Ministerial Excellence, United Church of Christ National Headquarters, Cleveland, Ohio

There is no admission charge to these programs. A free will offering will be taken. Park along Route 117, the Mount Gretna Fire Station Parking Lot, or the United Methodist Church Parking Lot at 3rd Street and Boehm Avenue.
