

Faith Connection Story – Penbrook

Penbrook UCC in Harrisburg recently crowned four youth as "Climate Change Heroes". Wearing capes and crowns made from recycled materials, four youth accepted this honor which they earned by completing activities focused on Creation Justice.

Activities included making worm farms and exploding seed balls, visiting a farmer's market, making a Meatless Monday meal, recycling trash in the neighborhood, playing Climate Change Bingo and donating magazines for recycling to Ronald McDonald House.

Submitted by Becky Boone

