The 12 Days of Christmas GIVEAWAY!

Christmas is coming early for all my L'BRI customers!

From now through December 15th I will be giving away over $____ in prizes. I will post a new giveaway every couple of days with details on how you can enter the drawing, so you'll want to check in often. The first giveaway will be announced on November ____ !

The GRAND PRIZE winner will receive the Ultimate Spa Collection valued at $140.85 which pampers you from head to toe! It includes our new Soothing Bath Soak, ever-popular Intense Body Butter and Body Wash, Rejuvenating Foot Cream and our amazing Hair Repair Masque plus a bath pouf, foot file and deep scrub mitt.

The GRAND PRIZE winner will be determined by a point system. Here's how you earn points:

- ★ 1 point for every dollar you spend now through December 14th. (L'BRI Credit doesn't count.)
- ★ 2 points for LIKING any 12 Days of Christmas Giveaway posts
- ★ 4 points for COMMENTING on any Christmas Giveaway posts
- ★ 70 points for hosting a L'BRI party (home, Facebook or catalog)
- ★ 30 points for asking me about the L'BRI income opportunity as a Consultant
- ★ 10 points for referring a friend to L'BRI

How Hannah did the 12 Drawings During the Giveaway

- ★ Went LIVE in her customer group and always had a cool and different background.
- ★ Announced the winner from the previous giveaway.
- ★ Highlighted the products that would be in the next drawing. Asked customers who use them to post comments.
- ★ Announced the way to enter each drawing. For each drawing, customers needed to reply to a question comment to enter. Here are some examples: What is your favorite Christmas song? Are you a Christmas elf or grinch? What is your most treasured Christmas tradition or recipe? If you had an extra $500 to spend on Christmas, what would you do?
- ★ When customers commented, Hannah placed their name on a numbered list in the order they commented.
- ★ Based on the number of customers who commented on the post, she decided how she would draw the winner's name. (You can simply make a slip with their name on it, but Hannah used clever and fun ways to identify the winner and included her daughter who wore a different costume each time. One time she placed numbers on the back of colorful autumn leaves attached to a window and her daughter selected the number. Another time she placed numbers under pieces of chocolate in a candy box and her daughter picked up her favorite candy to reveal the winner whose name corresponded on the numbered list.)
- ★ Mentioned Product Special and Host Bonus for November and December.
- ★ Reviewed points for Grand Prize giveaway each time.

In Between Drawings

- ★ Posted an image of the next giveaway collection and offered gift-giving ideas for it.
- ★ Posted instructions on how to enter the next drawing – what question to answer.
- ★ Invited customers to tag friends who are not currently using L'BRI.
- ★ Asked winners to share what they like about the product they won and suggested they post their comments on their profile and in the VIP Customer group.
- ★ Posted reminders a day before the next drawing.
- ★ If a customer placed a big product order, Hannah suggested they start a party.

Have fun creating your own
