

Capitol Hill Day

March 6, 2019

The American Institute of Architects

By the Numbers

AIA Members

605 AIA members participated in meetings with their Senators and Representatives.

- They came from 48 states and 3 US territories
- They came from 360 (out of 435) congressional districts or 83% of the nation's congressional districts
- They came from 96 (out of 100) Senate districts

Hill Meetings

474 meetings were held in the House and the Senate.

- 137 meetings were with Members of Congress
- 205 meetings were with senior level staff (Chief of Staff, Legislative Director or a committee staff member)
- 132 meetings were with junior staff

Targeted Committees

AIA targeted eight committees that are critical to its 2019 legislative agenda for special attention:

- Senate
 - Energy and Natural Resources
 - Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions
 - Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs
 - Finance
- House
 - Energy and Commerce
 - Education and Labor
 - Homeland Security
 - Ways and Means

FOR MORE INFORMATION
CONTACT

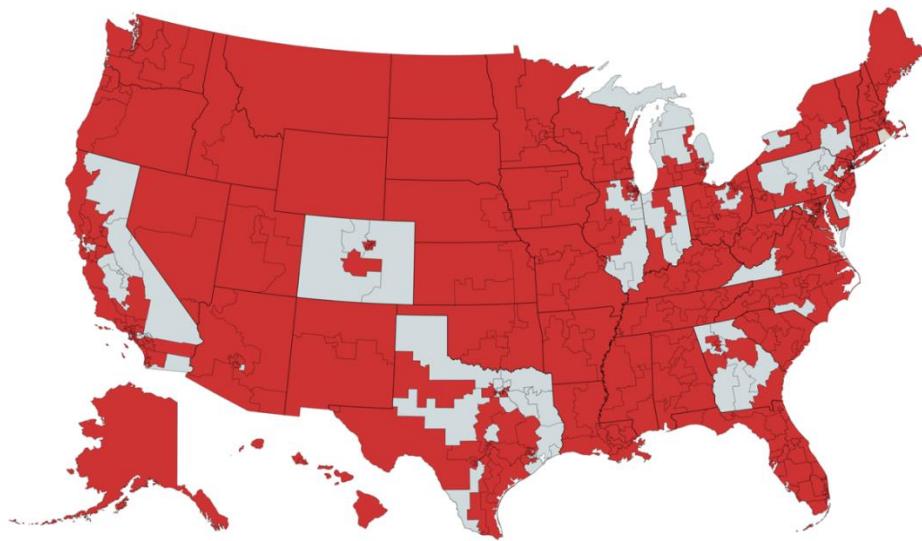

Cindy Schwartz
(202) 676 7494

cindyschwartz@aia.org

The American Institute of Architects
1735 New York Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20006-5292

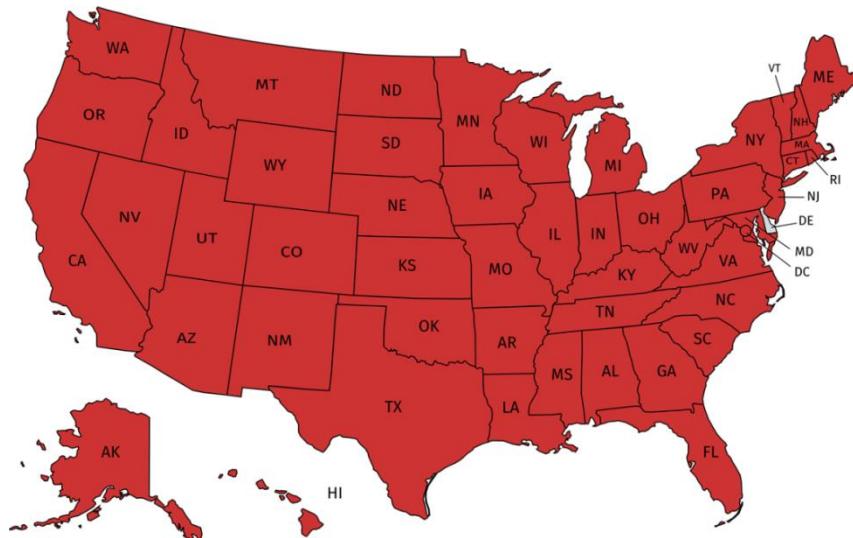

Out of a possible 237 meetings, AIA members met with Members of Congress or their staff from 217 offices, or 92%

The House

AIA members met with members of congress and staff from 360 congressional districts

The Senate

AIA met with Senate offices from 48 states

Leadership

AIA members and staff met with the following members of the Senate and House leadership.

- McConnell and Schumer
- Pelosi, Hoyer, Clyburn, McCarthy, and Scalise

Virtual Capitol Hill Day

1,937 AIA members took action through the Virtual Capitol Hill Day Portal.

- Members of Congress received 5,861 communications from AIA members
 - 5,610 emails
 - 263 tweets
- School Safety generated
 - 2,330 emails
 - 96 tweets
- EE-QIP generated
 - 3,280 emails
 - 167 tweets