ELIGIBILITY

2019 Merit Award - Architecture
DLR Group / Westlake Reed Leskosky
University Arts Building at the University of Nevada, Reno

AIA Cleveland

The Cleveland Chapter of the American Institute of Architects (AIA Cleveland) invites you to join us in celebrating exemplary designs of Northeast Ohio firms at the annual Cleveland Design Awards.

Call for Entries Posting:	Monday, July 20th, 2020
Open Water Submissions Open:	Monday, July 27th, 2020
Project Entry Submission Deadline:	Friday, September 25th, 2020, at 5:00 pm

ELIGIBILITY

Project Eligibility:

The goal of the Cleveland Design Awards program is to focus on high quality projects designed by AIA Cleveland members. All AIA Cleveland members (Emeritus, Professional, Associate, and Allied Professionals) in good standing are eligible to submit entries regardless of project size, budget, geographic location, or building type.

AIA membership is not required to enter submissions into the Makers, or Student categories*

General Submission Requirements

1. Authorship: The submitting firm/submitting individual MUST BE the Design Firm/Designer of Record, responsible for the overall design of the project concept.
2. Office Location: The submitting firm/submitting individual identified within the criteria listed above must have an operating office (project/job offices are not eligible) where at least one principal in the firm is a member of AIA Cleveland.
3. Team: A team member from the project team responsible for the overall design of the project concept must also be a member of AIA Cleveland. This project team member will be referred to as the "submitting individual" and will need to provide their AIA membership number at time of registration.

The same project may be submitted for multiple categories, if separate submissions are purchased. Projects that have won awards in other programs are eligible for submission. Previous AIA Cleveland Design Award winners may not be resubmitted. Firms and individuals are encouraged to re-enter projects previously submitted if they did not win an award and if they meet the above criteria. Project entries must have been completed on or after January 1, 2015.

Photography Eligibility:

AIA membership is not required to enter a submission in the photography category.*

This category was founded to capture and honor architects, design professionals, architectural students, and professional and amateur photographers whose amazing talents are showcased in their photographic interpretation of the designed environment. By entering a submission in this category, you hereby accept these restrictions:

- To qualify to enter this category, you must be over 18 years of age.
- This category is open to both Professional and Amateur photographers alike.
- This category is open to AIA members, Non-members, and students alike.
- The subject matter is limited to the State of Ohio. The subject matter must have an architectural theme or contain some element of the man-made environment.
- Each participant can submit up to 4 photos per online submission at a cost of $30. Entrants may only enter a maximum of (3) submissions for a total of (12) photos.
- The photographer(s) must be the author(s) of the pictures submitted in his/her/their name.
- Pictures submitted CANNOT include professionally commissioned photographs.
- All submitted photographs will be grouped together and judged in the same category no matter what level of experience the photographer has.
- Eligible photographs can include the use of all professional editing equipment and software as well as all mobile device photograph apps and software. (For example, Lightroom, Instagram, etc.)

Photographs that have won awards in other programs are eligible for submission. Previous AIA Cleveland Photography Award winners may not be resubmitted. All photograph images must have been taken on or after January 1, 2019.

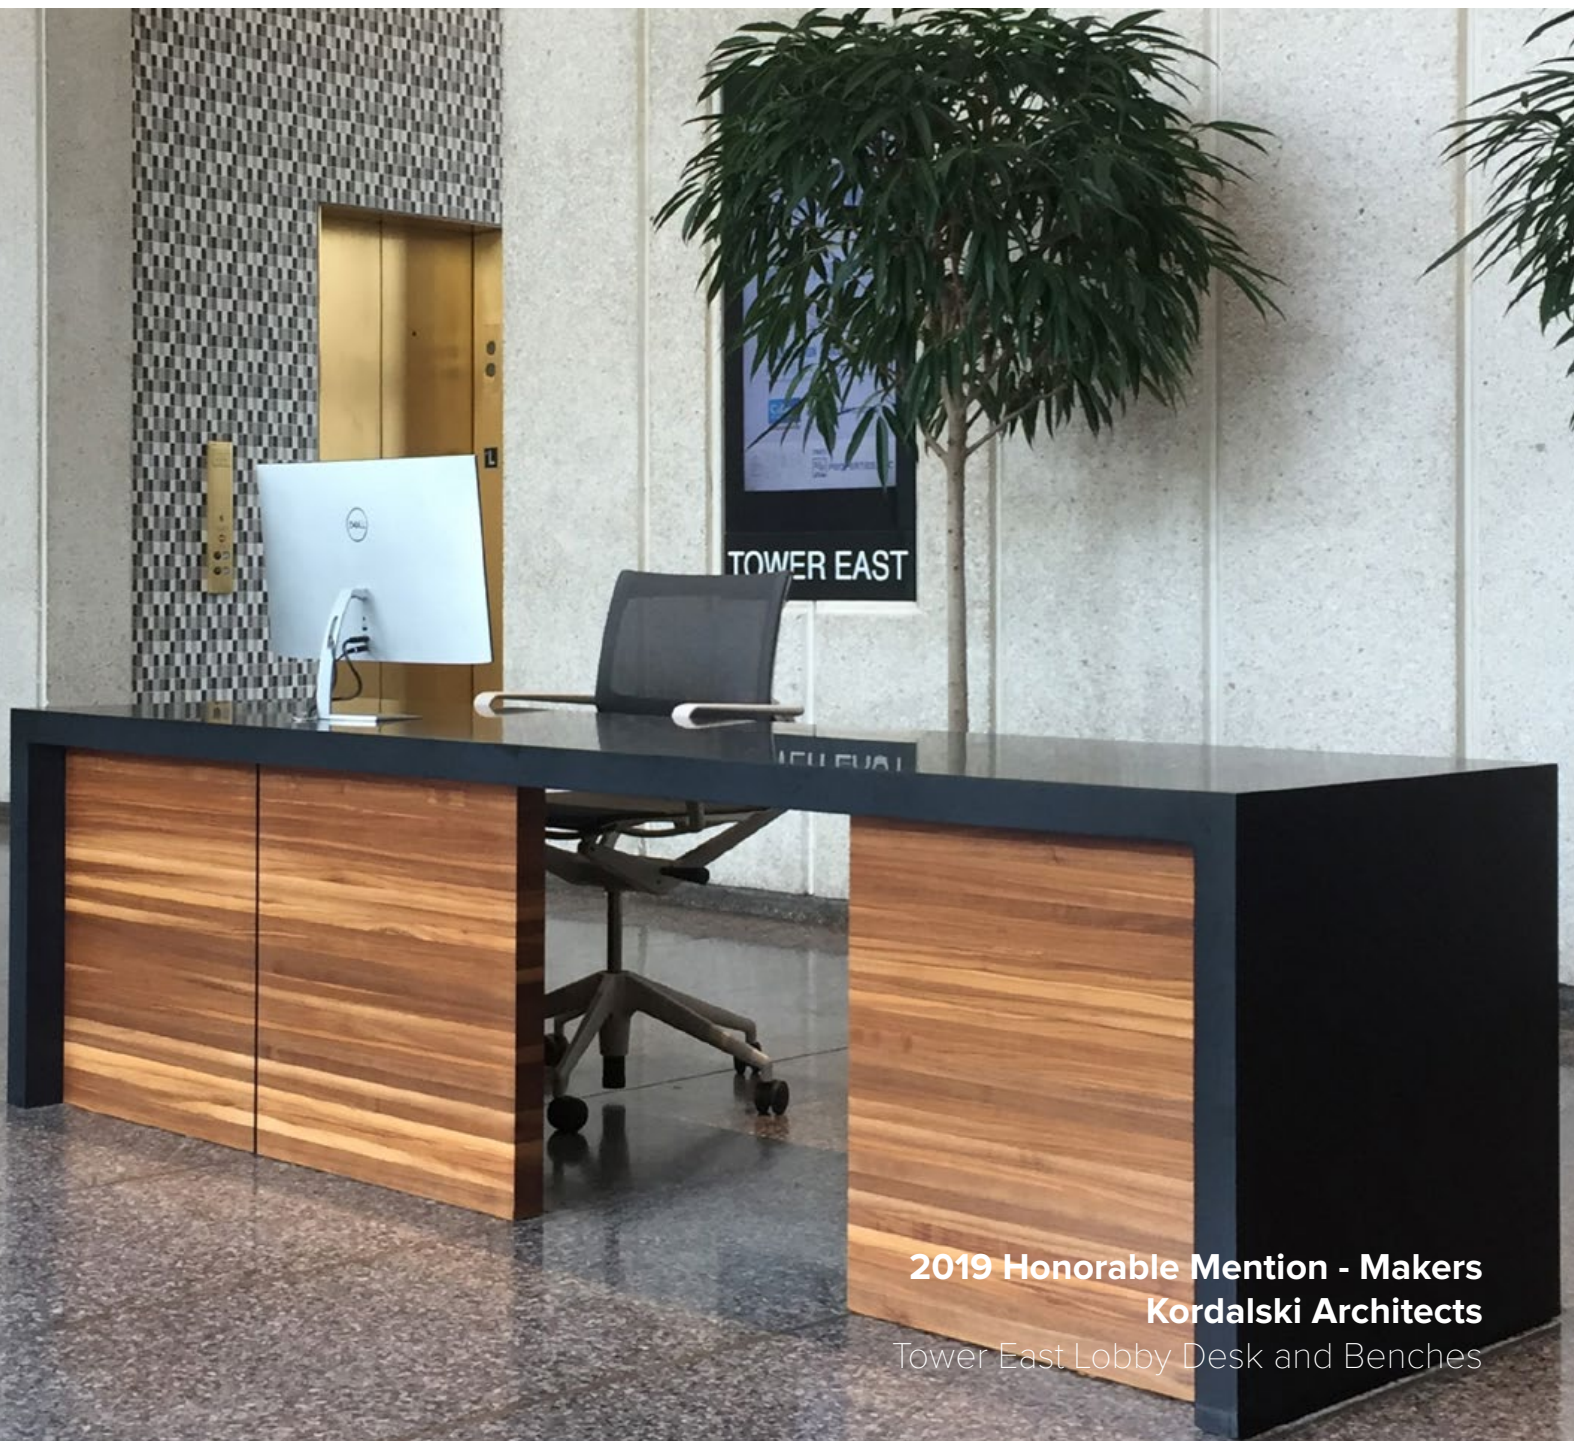

AIA Cleveland

Photographer submitter agrees to:

- By submitting a photography entry, you agree and acknowledge that AIA Cleveland is permitted to receive and review your registration data. Participants agree that personal data including, but not limited to, name, mailing address, phone number, and email address may be collected, processed, stored and otherwise used for the purposes of conducting and administering these photography awards.
- All entrants agree that all photograph(s) submitted to this category may be reproduced (with photographer copyright credit) and used to conduct and promote AIA Cleveland. You hereby grant AIA Cleveland with a right to use submitted photographs in the framework of such promotional activities.
- You acknowledge that AIA Cleveland and its event partners assume no responsibility and are not liable for any image misuse.
- Images are subject to cropping and resizing to fit marketing and printed material.
- You agree to participate in related publicity and to the use of your name and winning images for the purposes of advertising, promotion and publicity for AIA Cleveland and the competition without additional compensation. Such requests will not be unreasonably withheld.
- AIA Cleveland reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to disqualify and remove any photograph that does not comply with the following requirements, even after the photograph appears on the website. You warrant, in respect of the photographs submitted by you, as follows: You have the right to enter your photographs in this category, You are the sole copyright owner and creator of the photographs, to the best of your knowledge, the photographs do not contain any infringing, threatening, false, misleading, abusive, harassing, libelous, defamatory, vulgar, obscene, scandalous, inflammatory, pornographic or profane content. To the best of your knowledge, the photographs do not contain any material that could constitute or encourage conduct which would be considered a criminal offense, give rise to civil liability, or otherwise violate any law.

SUBMISSION CATEGORIES

All projects are to be submitted to AIA Cleveland through an online registration portal called Open Water. A project may be entered into one of the Submission Categories listed below. If you wish to enter a project into multiple categories, separate submissions must be purchased. Within each submission category, project types and additional criteria are listed. Projects MAY BE evaluated by specified project types and additional criteria at the discretion of the jury. The Jury also reserves the right to move projects between categories. Awards MAY NOT be given in each category listed. AIA Cleveland, on advisement from the Jury, reserves the right to make these changes.

AIA Cleveland will be utilizing an outside jury to judge all submissions for potential awards. The jury will evaluate all projects based on the aesthetic, functional, contextual, social and sustainable characteristics of the design. Each entry will be judged for the success with which it meets the individual project program, intent, and requirements. Each architectural photography entry will be judged on its photographic interpretation of the designed environment. All entries will be weighed individually for their merits, not in competition with each other. All evaluations will be based solely on the information contained within the submissions. The decisions of the jury will be FINAL.

The following categories are open to AIA Cleveland members only:

Architecture

Definition: This category celebrates the best architecture regardless of budget, style, or type. These stunning projects show the world the range of outstanding work architects create and highlight the many ways buildings and spaces can improve our lives. These projects have completed construction, are comprised of a single or related group of buildings and may include new construction, adaptive re-use, restoration, preservation/renovation and urban design.

Fee: $120

Interior Architecture

Definition: Impactful building interiors make their mark on the cities, places, and spaces where we live and work. These projects involve the interior design of spaces in new construction, adaptive re-use, restoration, or preservation/renovation.

Fee: $120

Unbuilt Architecture

Definition: Recognizes unbuilt projects for their excellence or research on design practice or theory, design competitions, and projects that are not expected to be constructed. If a project wins for this category, it is ineligible for future submission in any other category.

Fee: $120

Small Projects

Definition: This category recognizes small project practitioners for the high quality of their work and to promote excellence in small project design in all types of buildings, restoration, preservation and, adaptive re-use. This category strives to raise public awareness of the value and design excellence that architects bring to a project, despite the limits of size and scope. Projects must be less than 5,000 square feet.

Fee: $120

People's Choice

Definition: All projects submitted in one of the following four categories; Architecture, Interior Architecture, Unbuilt Architecture, and Small Projects will automatically be included in the public voting process for the People's Choice Award. All projects will be grouped into one general pool and one People's Choice Award will be awarded.

Fee: FREE of Charge, Included with submission

AIA Cleveland

The following categories AIA Cleveland membership is not required:

Makers

Definition:

To recognize an instance in which the expression of architecture and the craft of making come together. Submissions should illustrate the governing design concept of that building in which the detail, fabrication, installation is found using a particular material, detail, or technology. Submissions should set themselves apart from the 'norm' with considerations to the concept of the detail, originality of the design, innovative use of materials, execution of the concept through craft, and how it relates to the overall goals of the project. Projects may be located anywhere in the world and can include furniture, fabrication, and installations: temporary or permanent.

Fee: $30

Architectural Photography

Definition:

This category captures and honors architects, design professionals, architectural students, and professional and amateur photographers whose amazing talents are showcased in their photographic interpretation of the designed environment. The subject matter is of the State of Ohio that must have an architectural theme or contain some element of the man-made environment. Photographic interpretation of the subject matter is the issue, not the architecture. Entries must have been exposed by, and be owned by, the entrant.

Fee: $30 Fee includes up to 4 photographs (Limit of 3 separate submissions per individual)

Student Work

Definition:

The student design awards program focuses on high quality, innovative design responses. This program allows current students (or students have have just graduated in the Spring/Summer of 2020) to submit school projects of their choice from past academic semesters.

Fee: FREE of Charge

FAQ'S

2019 Merit Award - Small Projects
AoDK Inc.
Visocky O'Grady Residence

AIA Cleveland

FAQ's (FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS)

We are a local branch office of a National Firm and are interested in submitting a project for the AIA Cleveland Design Awards. Can we submit?

Yes you can submit as long as the overall design of the project was completed by the local branch office. In addition, a Principal in the office and a project team member must be an AIA Cleveland member in good standing.

My project won an AIA Cleveland Design Award previously. I was wondering if I can submit the project again this year for another category?

No the project cannot be submitted again since it has already received AIA Cleveland recognition.

My project has won an IIDA, NAOIP, or another organization's Design Award previously but has never received AIA recognition. May I submit the project again for consideration for one of the AIA Cleveland Design categories?

Yes the project may be submitted since it has never received AIA Cleveland recognition.

My project has won an AIA Cleveland Design Award previously. May I submit something from that project for the Makers Category?

Yes. The Makers category was created to celebrate an instance in which the expression of architecture and the craft of making come together and not the overall project itself. As long as you are not resubmitting a Makers category winner, instances from previous AIA Cleveland Design Award winning projects may be submitted.

Will I be notified if my project or photography entry has won an award?

No. AIA Cleveland does not notify award winners in advance of the event. It is strongly encouraged that you attend the event if you have submitted a project or photography for consideration.

Can I submit a project for the unbuilt category if it is going to still be constructed?

No, the Unbuilt category is geared towards projects that are not expected to be realized such as non-winning competition entries or commissions no longer moving forward. If you do choose to submit a project for the Unbuilt category and it wins an award the project would be disqualified from winning future awards, if it is someday built.

Can we list the architect as well as the maker for the Makers Award?

Yes, as long as both parties are in agreement that credit will be shared between the two if the object is recognized with an award.

If I submit a project for the Small Projects category, can I submit the same project for other categories?

Yes, as long as multiple submissions are purchased. The intent of the Small Projects Category is to provide a competitive outlet for those project types with size and/or budget limitations.
