

Thomas Klein, FACHE

Vice President & System Ambulatory Chief Operating Officer

Thomas (Tom) Klein, FACHE, oversees business operations and strategy for Ascension’s employed clinician network (AECN) in partnership with clinical and operations leaders. A mission-driven healthcare executive, he is known for driving results, fostering collaboration, and strengthening physician and associate relationships.

Tom rejoined Ascension in March 2025 after serving as Chief Operating Officer (COO), Ambulatory Operations, for Henry Ford Health since October 2024. Previous roles include COO for Ascension Medical Group (AMG) Michigan, Vice President for Ascension Michigan’s Oncology Service Line and Oncology Director for AMG Michigan’s Physician Practice Management. During the COVID-19 pandemic, Tom was Deputy Chief of the Medical Technical State Incident Command Center for Ascension Michigan. Before joining Ascension, he served Trinity Health Oakland as Director of Physician Relations and Business Development, and Manager of Business Development.

Tom holds a master’s degree in health administration and a bachelor’s degree in political science from the University of Michigan. He completed an administrative fellowship with Trinity Health and is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives. Tom was named to the 2023 Crain’s Detroit Business “40 Under 40” class and is a 2024 recipient of the Catholic Health Association’s Tomorrow’s Leaders Award.

A resident of southeast Michigan, Tom enjoys spending time with family and friends, exploring new places with his wife, and trying out new restaurants. He is an avid golfer, and a University of Michigan and Detroit sports fan.
