

Laurie Gustafson

Director of Community Health and Well-Being Trinity Health Livonia Hospital

Laurie Gustafson is the Director of Community Health and Well-Being at Trinity Health Livonia Hospital. Her team bridges the gap between Trinity Health's excellent clinical care and the broader needs of the communities they serve, recognizing that good health extends beyond hospital walls. She holds a Master of Health Services Administration from the University of Michigan's School of Public Health and a Master of Arts in Psychological Counseling. Laurie's career spans community mental health, family counseling, workplace wellness, community coalition building, and community health administration. She is dedicated to community engagement and cross-sector collaboration to ensure everyone has the opportunity to achieve optimal health.
