

From the British Library

A series of free afternoon talks hosted by the British Library. We will take you across the centuries since the Mayflower set sail and reveal the different ways that Britons from all walks of life have engaged with the story of the voyage. From the Romanticism of Wordsworth and the patriotism of Rudyard Kipling to Mayflower barns and historical re-enactment, the British cultural afterlife of the voyage will be uncovered for the first time.

Programs

September 7, 14, and 21, 2020

8:00 am eastern

Ed Downey, 'Novelists, poets and pilgrims: the Mayflower in British literature'

September 4, 2020 – 8am eastern

<https://www.bl.uk/events/novelists-poets-and-pilgrims-the-mayflower-in-british-literature>

Tom Hulme, 'Performing the Pilgrim Fathers: re-living the past through popular theatre'

September 14, 2020 – 8am eastern

<https://www.bl.uk/events/performing-the-pilgrim-fathers-re-living-the-past-through-popular-theatre>

Martha Vandrei, 'What became of the Mayflower? Searching for a lost ship in 1920s Britain'

September 21, 2020 – 8am eastern

<https://www.bl.uk/events/what-became-of-the-mayflower-searching-for-a-lost-ship-in-1920s-britain>