This one-day workshop provides the knowledge and resources to help establish and sustain comprehensive school safety and crisis prevention and preparedness efforts. With updated research and strategies, this workshop makes a clear connection between ongoing school safety and crisis preparedness. It also emphasizes the unique needs and functions of school teams and the steps involved in developing these teams, including a model that integrates school personnel and community provider roles. The workshop also explores how to prepare for school crises by developing, exercising, and evaluating a safety and crisis plan, which will help improve school climate, student behavior and academic functioning, student resilience, and staff crisis response capabilities.

NASP PREPaRE Workshop 1 is appropriate for a range of audiences including graduate students, interns, novice and experienced school psychologists, as well as teachers, mental health professionals, security professionals, and administrators.
