

Press Release: Fleetmaster Express Announces Leadership Changes and Commitment to Excellence

Roanoke, VA – January 29, 2025 – Fleetmaster Express is excited to announce important changes to its executive leadership team, effective immediately, as part of the company's ongoing commitment to growth, innovation, and success.

Travis Smith, who has served as Chief Operating Officer for nearly 14 years, will now take on the role of President. This title change is a recognition of Travis' unwavering dedication, hard work, and remarkable contributions to Fleetmaster Express. As President, Travis will play a key role in driving the next phase of the company's growth and success. Additionally, he will have increased ownership in the company, further aligning his success with Fleetmaster Express' future.

Carl Bumgarner will continue in his roles as CEO and Chairman of the Board. Carl has been with Fleetmaster Express for nearly 35 years, following in the footsteps of his father, Bill Bumgarner, who founded the company in 1987. Carl's leadership and vision have been fundamental in shaping the success of the company, and we look forward to the next chapter as he transitions into this new role.

"We are confident that these changes will allow us to continue building on our legacy and pursue even greater achievements," said Carl Bumgarner, CEO and Chairman of Fleetmaster Express. "These leadership transitions, combined with our continued focus on supporting our employees, will position us for sustained growth and success."

In addition to these leadership changes, Fleetmaster Express remains deeply committed to its employees. The company has not raised employee benefit costs in five years, ensuring that its workforce continues to receive competitive benefits even amid the challenging economic environment. Fleetmaster Express has also continued to award compensation based on performance, further recognizing the dedication and hard work of its employees.

"By providing stability in benefits and rewarding our employees' performance, we are not only investing in our company's growth but also in the well-being of the people who help make that growth possible," said Travis Smith, President of Fleetmaster Express.

Fleetmaster Express continues to prioritize a positive work environment and is dedicated to fostering long-term relationships with its employees. The company remains focused on innovation, customer satisfaction, and operational excellence as it continues to grow and serve a variety of industries with tailored logistics solutions.
