Dear Scottsdale Prep Families,

HomeCOLORing week is here, and our students have been engaged daily with fun and exciting Spartan activities and competitions! This week is a time to celebrate our Spartan community, with dance, fight song and 3-pt basketball competitions. Tomorrow is our pep rally and Spartan spirit wear day, and we look forward to seeing our Scottsdale Prep families at the volleyball, cross country and football games today and this weekend.

This week we have beamed with pride as our students lead their conferences with the support of parents and faculty. We have received so many positive comments about our students' ability to present their plan for growth in the coming quarters ahead. Thank you for your support of these important conference opportunities for your child.

We appreciate your patience with slower pick-up traffic this week on the half days, and thank you to those who are coming later to pick up. Remember, our high school students and siblings of Archway students have an earlier pick-up time at 12:20pm, with middle school students out at 12:35 pm. I hope you will stay in touch with any suggestions or feedback on these half day schedules, as we will begin mapping our next year's calendar very soon.

Best wishes, and go Spartans!

Sincerely,

Alison Chaney
