Dear Scottsdale Prep Families,

On the heels of Homecoming Week, we continue to stay busy with many events this week, including the PSAT test for all 9th – 11th grade students, as well as the 8th Grade Retreat. This retreat, which was the first of its kind, was an all-day affair for our 8th grade class, which focused on leadership and class bonding, and based upon the very positive feedback, we will absolutely make this event a tradition for our 8th grade classes to come! I am so grateful to our PSO and especially to parent Jing Curtiss, who stepped up to organize and lead this entire event – thank you Mrs. Curtiss!

After the half-day of classes, our faculty engaged in conversations around school culture, as we continue our focus this year on habituating virtues. We began those conversations with a beautiful fall luncheon, sponsored by our PSO Teacher Appreciation committee (picture from the event), coordinated by Mrs. Jen Murphy and Mrs. Laurie Langford. Thank you for making our teachers feel special throughout the year with these marvelous lunches.

I hope many of you will join us this evening for our Fall Season Senior Recognition Night at our home volleyball game, and please wear PINK alongside our Varsity Volleyball players to support Breast Cancer Awareness.

Best wishes, and Go Spartans!

Sincerely,

Alison Chaney
