The approximate operating cost of MVUUF is $275/month ($3300/year) per adult member.

Red Category $1-$9 per month

Who might be here: A household experiencing financial instability. Someone between jobs or facing significant medical bills. A family covering essential expenses with little or nothing left over.

We're grateful you're part of our church family.

Orange Category $10-$49 per month

Who might be here: A household meeting basic needs but with very limited discretionary income. Someone paying off debt or navigating tight monthly budgets. A single-income family adjusting to recent life changes.

Thank you for contributing in a way that fits your season of life.

Yellow Category $50-$149 per month

Who might be here: A household with modest financial breathing room. Someone with steady income but still balancing monthly obligations like loans or childcare. A family able to give consistently, even if in smaller amounts.

Your gift inspires us to continue working toward our goals.

Green Category $150-$249 per month

Who might be here: A dual-income household with manageable expenses. Someone whose financial situation is generally stable with predictable monthly costs. A family able to budget for charitable giving as a regular practice.

Your steady support helps sustain our shared ministry.

Blue Category $300-$499 per month

Who might be here: A household with reliable income and healthy savings. Someone with fewer major expenses (e.g., children grown, debts paid down). A family choosing to prioritize giving as a meaningful expression of their values.

Your commitment strengthens our mission and outreach.

Purple Category $500+ per month

Who might be here: A household enjoying strong financial stability. Someone with higher earning capacity or significantly reduced expenses. A family able to make giving a major part of their annual financial plan.

Your generosity supports both current ministries and future growth.
