“Ask the Expert”

CLIA Expands Services to Assist Members

The coronavirus pandemic has forced all Americans into an entirely new trajectory with unknown consequences. Business owners and operators have a range of decisions to make about their businesses including safety concerns, financial management, labor law, emotional well being and much more.

CLIA has formed a CLIA Coronavirus Task Force to provide new support services to aid our members in managing the complexities of the coronavirus crisis. There will be several components to the “Ask the Expert” support program:

Email Support - email these experts with your questions:

John Manderfeld- Hotel Operations and Human Resources – jmanderfeld@hotelpros.biz

Pat Mitchell- - Hotel Operations and Human Resources – pmitchell@hotelpros.biz

Pravin Pranav- Payroll/Human Resources – pravin@abacushcm.com

David Bowman- Finance and Real Estate Ownership – dbowman@amberhc.com

Member Outreach: individuals on the Coronavirus Task Force will be contacting CLIA members to offer support, assist with any questions and to provide reassurance or a friendly ear

Coronavirus Emergency Conference Call

Friday, March 20, 2020 at 11am

Members can dial in to ask any question with special attention related to the Coronavirus crisis.

For dial-in instructions, email Bobbie Singh-Allen at bsinghallen@clia.org.