

Pennsylvania Tax Authorities COVID-19 Response

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, Pennsylvania Act 10 has provided for several provisions to help individuals and businesses stay solvent during these challenging times.

State Level Tax

The Pennsylvania Department of Revenue has postponed the April 15, 2020 filing and payment deadlines to July 15, 2020, as well as extending quarterly estimated payment due dates to July 15, 2020. Additionally, the due date for corporations with tax returns due in May has been extended to August 14, 2020. Extensions apply only to calendar year taxpayers. Specifically, this delay applies to the following Pennsylvania income tax returns and tax payments:

- 2019 Individual Income Tax Returns – Form PA-40
- 2019 Individual Income Tax Balances Due
- 2020 Individual First Quarter Income Tax Estimates
- 2020 Individual Second Quarter Income Tax Estimates
- 2019 C Corporation Net Income Tax Return – Form RTC-101 (Due August 14, 2020)
- 2019 C Corporation Net Income Tax Balances Due (Due August 14, 2020)
- 2020 C Corporation First Quarter Income Tax Estimates (Calendar Year – Due August 14, 2020)
- 2019 Trust/Estate Income Tax Returns – Form PA-41
- 2019 Trust/Estate Tax Balances Due
- 2020 Trust/Estate First Quarter Income Tax Estimates
- 2019 Partnership Tax Return – Form 20S/PA-65
- 2019 S Corporation Tax Return – Form 20S/PA-65
- 2020 Pass-Through Entity First Quarter Income Tax Estimates (nonresident and composite)

Payment of income taxes listed above by July 15, 2020, or August 14, 2020, in the case of corporate tax returns, will not be subject to late payment interest or penalties. No additional forms are required to be filed to qualify.

No other taxes administered by the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue have revised filing or payment due dates. The normal due dates apply to all other state level tax filing and payment requirements.
