

Jesus The Way, The Truth & The Life Study Top Commentaries

- The opportunity to learn what I should have learned in Sunday school. Met nice people in our discussion group
  - All I learned that I didn't know
  - Enjoyed hearing others perspectives
  - To really remember each day to make God/Jesus the center of my life, no matter how stressful life gets
  - To be a better disciple because Jesus suffered so much for us. This study emphasized my joy and love for him and do not be afraid to tell others of how good he is.
  - To focus and concentrate deeply each time I receive the bread and blood of Jesus. It's so profound.
  - Being able to openly share my faith and talk about it with people I barely know is very powerful and rewarding
- I now have a better understanding of the way the truth and the life and will make it more part of my life through prayer, Eucharist, words, deeds and actions.
- I want to encourage members of my family to learn more about Jesus and his love for all of us
  - How important humility is and how to treat others
  - Studying the life of Jesus made it come alive for me, to appreciate Jesus as a man and what he went through on earth. I want to try to practice more forgiveness in my life.
  - Gospel needs to be lived rather than just studied
  - Gratitude to Jesus/God, his sacrifices for us became more real. Humanity of Jesus and how to follow the path of Jesus... humility, patience and trust.
  - I enjoyed learning how Old Testament readings and New Testament really coincide with prophecy and fulfillment of Jesus as the Messiah.

It never ceases to amaze me the foreshadowing and how prophecy was fulfilled in the New Testament

-That what I learned in nine years of Catholic grammar school only touched upon the life of Christ. There was so much more to know

-We are encouraged to read the New Testament on a regular basis rather than haphazardly

-I think I grew in understanding the Eucharist and will continue to read more about it

-A deeper understanding and relationship to Jesus

-Connecting Old Testament to New Testament and seeing the relationships to Christ

-The overall reinforcement of the relationship between the old and the new testaments

-Knowing God and developing an intimate relationship with God

-I definitely have a deeper understanding of why Jesus did what he did. Love kindness peace and joy is my focus

-Lavish love of the father!

-I plan to read the Bible from cover to cover

-This was the best Bible study I ever attended! I gained so much from the Old Testament readings.

-Great study! Get more men involved!
