Expediting Land Home deals

The six things that constitute a complete application

- Property address
- Estimated value
- Name
- Social Security Number
- Income
- Loan amount

To ensure TRID compliance, it is important that we do not collect a complete application until your customer has a fully executed purchase agreement. We ask that you not include the property address for purchase applications until you have a completed purchase and sale agreement to submit. We accept pre-qualification applications with a TBD address before a purchase agreement is executed. This does not apply to refinances, please provide the property address on the application.

See territory map below for applications email. Contact Business Development Executive with questions

What we need to process a deal quickly

PRE QUAL APPLICATION (LAND HOME ONLY)

- A completed FNMA 1003 without the current address of the home
- Completed Application Cover Sheet form with broker's selection of borrower-paid or lender-paid LO compensation
- Email addresses for the applicant and co-applicant, if applicable
- Disposition of the applicant's current home if owned

When the customer is ready to proceed, send:

- Property address
- Broker fees
- A copy of the purchase & sale agreement
- Contact name, phone number and address for the title and escrow company
- Intent to proceed
- Credit card authorization form to order appraisal

LOAN PROCESSING
