

Upcoming Events

Join a growing community of certified professionals working to protect and restore our watershed. Chesapeake Bay Landscape Professional (CBLP) trainings are hands-on, interactive, and taught by local experts. Earn CEUs, build your skills, and become a stronger stormwater partner and environmental steward—right in your region. www.cblpro.org

CBLP Level 1, August - September

Locations across the watershed

Focus on design, installation, and maintenance of stormwater best management practices (BMPs) and conservation landscapes .

CBLP Crews, April - October

Locations across the watershed

Sustainable landscape maintenance for stormwater best management practices, common issues and how to correct them - Classes available in Spanish.

Meadow Management Workshop

July 21 online & July 23 in-person

Build confidence managing sustainable meadow projects through hands-on field experience, real-world case studies, and practical strategies for maintenance, funding, and invasive species control.

CBLP - Shorelines

Aug 21, 26, 27 & Sept 11, MD VA dates coming soon

Gain the skills to assess sites, navigate permitting, and apply practical tools and design methods for successful living shorelines

CBLP Buffers

October - November in PA, MD & VA

Introduction to the benefits and use of riparian buffers along with site assessment, design, and maintenance of these valuable practices

What is CBLP?

CBLP is a voluntary regional credentialing program developed by the Chesapeake Conservation Landscaping Council (CCLC) in partnership with:

Contact:
Katie Pinkham
katie@cblpro.org

