

Outcomes for Outreach Funds

- 1. Individuals and families have a successful transition from one community to another*
- 2. Individuals and families are able to manage general health and lifestyle stresses*
- 3. Family members are aware of and comfortable accessing local, national and host nation community services.*
- 4. Families feel welcomed into their new community*
- 5. Individuals are well equipped to pursue their employment and career goals*
- 6. Individuals are well equipped to pursue their education goals*
- 7. Individuals have opportunities to learn the predominant official language of their community for day-to-day living.*
- 8. Families have opportunities to celebrate being Canadian*
- 9. Children and youth have opportunities for social interaction and learning.*
- 10. Families have access to parent and caregiver education and resources.*
- 11. Parents are well equipped to manage child care needs in emergency situations*
- 12. Parents have access to child care options*
- 13. Families feel supported during periods of CAF member work related absences*
- 14. Families are aware of and are prepared for the challenges they may encounter before, during and after CAF member work-related absence.*
- 15. Individuals and families are well equipped to handle emergency situations*
- 16. Individuals and families have the opportunity to develop peer support networks*
- 17. Individuals and families feel connected and supported*
- 18. Individuals and families are engaged in community development activities*
- 19. Individuals are enabled to effectively use their voice*
- 20. Family members have access to programs, services and resources that support skill development and personal growth.*