

We are pleased to welcome submissions for the 2020 Western Canada Jewish Book Awards. An integral part of the Vancouver JCC Jewish Book Festival, the program is designed to celebrate excellence in writing on Jewish themes and subjects and showcase the achievements of Jewish and non-Jewish authors from Western Canada. Now on the third edition, the Awards acknowledge the winning authors with cash prizes and public recognition.

Submissions are accepted in the following categories: Fiction, Non-Fiction, Children/Youth, Poetry and Holocaust.

Books published in 2018 and 2019 will be accepted. The submission deadline is December 15, 2019. The awards ceremony will take place in late April 2020.

We invite you to make a submission or invite authors in your community to submit. Please help us spread the word by forwarding this appeal to as many relevant individuals or organizations.
