

The political engagement people

Virtual Events

Hello friends!

Things are really heating up at CJPAC on the programming front! We have lots of cool things coming your way in the next few weeks; we've got you covered virtually for all of your political engagement needs!

Take a look below for some new programming and some back by popular demand. More is still to come. Stay tuned!

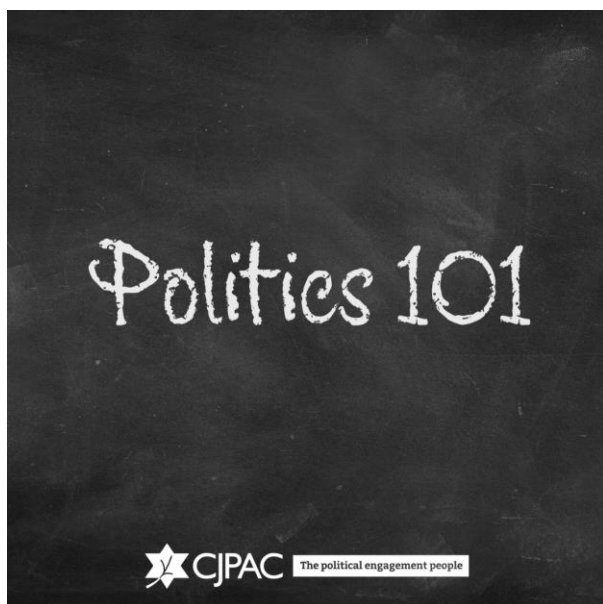

Book Club

Monday, June 22 at 8:30pm ET/ 5:30pm PT

Get ready for the next installment of CJPAC's Book Club! After consultation with the book club participants and our followers on social media, the votes have been tallied. We are excited to be delving into The Plot Against America by Philip Roth!

RSVP here to join us and you can purchase the book here.

Tuesday, June 9 at 7:30pm ET/ 4:30pm PT

By popular demand, Politics 101 is back! This time for Grades 7-12 (and Quebec Sec I-V). Learn about the basics of Canadian politics and political engagement from home.

This is a fantastic way for teens to get a taste of Canadian politics.

Sign up here.

Monday, June 1 at 1pm ET/ 10am PT

Join us on Facebook Live where we will be joined by a Canadian Rabbi to explore the "J" in CJPAC. We will be diving into Jewish texts with some valuable political lessons and insight through a Jewish lens. You don't want to miss this!

We may not be in an election but parties, politicians and leadership campaigns still need volunteers. It's a great way to make an impact, even right from your living room. We are here to make the process easy for you. Drop us a line at volunteer@cjpac.ca to be connected to the campaign of your choice.

Thank you to those who have already participated in our exciting new programs. You can learn more about all of our virtual events and register for them here. Please share this email with anyone you think might enjoy these programs.

Don't hesitate to reach out at jreich@cjpac.ca if you need anything or want to share some virtual programming ideas.

Be well and stay safe,
