JNF CANADA PRESENTS

FROM THE COURTROOM TO THE STAGE: STORY AND SONG WITH KAYLA DIAMOND
WEBINAR

PRESENTED BY

KAYLA DIAMOND
CANADIAN POP ARTIST

About Kayla Diamond

Kayla Diamond was supposed to be a lawyer but fate had a different plan. In 2016 while Kayla was attending law school, she got the call from Slaight Music and Cadence Music Group that changed her life - a recording deal that she left law school for. That move landed her a top 30 on the Canadian Billboard radio charts with her first single, "Carnival Hearts", and a nomination for the single at the Canadian Radio Music Awards. Her next release "What You're Made Of" earned her first Canadian Billboard Top 10. Known for her bluesy tones and bold lyrics, Kayla's proved herself to be a prominent song-writer among the pop, indie, and dance world. She has catchy collaborations with Alex Schulz, Kiso Armic, Vanillaz, and Anevo, earning her steady radio play and recognition from the likes of Gareth Emery, Tiesto, Hardwell and many more. Kayla's equal passion is developing, executive producing, and strategizing other emerging artists- many of which are set to release in 2020.
