

THE JEWISH AGENCY FOR ISRAEL

Connections

Teaching English in Israel

After college, 22-year-old Jenna wanted to spend time in Israel while fulfilling her passion for promoting diversity. She found the ideal fit both personally and professionally in teaching English to kids from a low socioeconomic background in Bat Yam.

Learn more >

Giving Hope to Children at Risk

---

Among the many programs in Israel that help youth at risk, one stands out: Youth Futures. Using a model seen nowhere else in the world, Youth Futures gives hope to its 12,000 participating children, focusing on strengths rather than weaknesses, and harnessing the power of the community around them.

Learn more >

Falling in Love in Jerusalem

---

Growing up in Ukraine, Ana knew she was Jewish; however, she couldn't locate Israel on a map. Today, she is flourishing in Jerusalem, where she is studying Hebrew at Ulpan Etzion—which offers intensive Hebrew study for immigrants to Israel from all over the world.

Learn more >

Jewish Agency announces a 5% rise in Aliyah during 2018, including a 45% increase from Russia

Learn more >

Forward this newsletter

Copyright © 2019 The Jewish Agency for Israel, All rights reserved.

You are receiving this email because you requested to receive Jewish Agency marketing materials, or serve on Jewish Agency staff, volunteer for The Jewish Agency, or hold affiliation with one of The Jewish Agency's partner or subsidiary organizations.

Our mailing address is:

The Jewish Agency for Israel
633 3rd Ave Fl 21
New York, NY 10017-8157

Add us to your address book

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

---