

SUPPORT FOR QUALIFIED HOLOCAUST SURVIVORS

Jewish Family Services has been able to offer assistance to Holocaust survivors through the financial support of Claims Conference (The Conference on Jewish Material Claims against Germany) since 2015. Our services include housekeeping, shopping, transportation, cooking, companionship and so much more. In the past, some survivors have applied for these services and were rejected based on their war history, country of birth, financial status or lack of application to the Hardship fund. Many of these rules have changed in the past few years and we are inviting you to re-apply for the program to see if you are now a qualified candidate. You can contact Tatiana Kastner or Rhonda Eidelman at 780-454-1194 to discuss the status of yourself or a suitable relative or friend.
