

With this pandemic, teens have lost a lot of their high school life, including extra curriculars. Those programs educate students beyond their required course load and bolster their applications for continued studies. We wanted to make sure we didn't take that opportunity away.

So CJPAC's Generation: Student Leaders Program is back and all virtual this time!

It's an amazing political engagement experience specifically tailored to Jewish high school students. It should NOT be missed. The October 20th deadline is fast approaching. Make sure all the teens you know apply. Send them this:

Meanwhile, federal by-elections are underway in two Toronto ridings and it's time YOU got involved! That's right, you.

It has never been easier to volunteer because this time you can do it from the comfort of your home – wherever in Canada your home may be. And CJPAC makes it even easier.

Let us know who you would like to volunteer for, and we'll connect you! All you have to do is:

If you have any questions, you can reach us at outreach@cjpac.ca.

Happy campaigning!
