

IS — Meet Our New Faculty!

Susanna Eusse
3rd & 5th Grade Spanish Teacher

Susanna grew up in Colombia, South America and moved to the United States in 2000. She earned a graduate degree in Business Administration from the Universidad Francisco de Paula Santander in Cucuta, Colombia. Susanna has been an essential member of the St. Andrew's business office team for the past year and a half. She loves spending time with her two boys, ages 24 and 12, whom she calls "the best sons in the world!" She also enjoys dancing and volleyball. She volunteered at Burning Tree Elementary School in Bethesda, and coaches volleyball at Mother Seton Parish in Germantown. She loves working with the Intermediate School age group, and especially enjoys the spontaneity and curiosity of 3rd, 4th, and 5th graders. She is greatly looking forward to getting to know all of the IS students this school year!

Samuel Futrovsky
3rd, 4th, 5th Grade PE Teacher

Sam is returning to the DC area from Philadelphia, PA. An avid lacrosse player, he has spent several years coaching lacrosse, including three years as the Assistant Varsity Lacrosse Coach here at St. Andrew's. Sam graduated from St. Vincent College and has worked at the Elwyn School in Latrobe, PA, as well as with Montgomery County Public Schools. His hobbies include kayaking, fishing, and other outdoor activities. He also enjoys traveling, photography, and movies.

Danielle Moore
5th Grade Homeroom Teacher

Dannie is a recent graduate of the Harvard Graduate School of Education, where she completed her Masters of Education in School Leadership. She is also a graduate of George Washington University and is a St. Andrew's alumna! In 2013, Dannie was selected from thousands of applicants to become a Teach for America Corps Member. Following her work with Teach for America, she was a 3rd grade teacher in College Park, GA. While completing her coursework at Harvard, she worked with the Neighborhood House Charter School in Dorchester, MA. In addition to teaching 5th grade, she will also be joining our coaching team for the 2016-2017 school year. Dannie enjoys singing, traveling, and cooking. She also has a great love of animals, and would count elephants and dolphins among her favorites. Welcome back to St. Andrew's, Dannie!

Jessica Sellinger
4th Grade Spanish Teacher

Jessica Sellinger is beginning her fourth year as a teacher at St. Andrew's Episcopal School. At St. Andrew's, she teaches three sections of high school Spanish, one section of English Language Instruction, and also coordinates the Cantabria student exchange program. In addition to her teaching responsibilities, she coaches middle school cross country and high school indoor track. After graduating with a B.A. in Spanish and Latin American Studies from Emory University, she was awarded a Fulbright grant to teach secondary school English and the Model United Nations Global Classrooms program for two years in Cantabria, Spain. Before coming to St. Andrew's, she taught elementary school students in France and at Capitol Hill Day School in Washington, D.C.. She has a Masters in Secondary Education from George Washington University. In her free time, she enjoys running, reading, and traveling.
