

Coffee, Bagels, and Discussion @PSL

Jonathan Seitz, PCUSA Mission Worker and Professor at Taiwan Seminary

August 23, 2018 9:30-11:00am

@the PSL Presbytery Office (3603 Lorna Ridge Drive)

“World Christianity and the Church’s Mission”

Today more Christians live outside the west than in it, and places like Congo and China are centers of Christian life. It has been said that “there are more Presbyterians in Korea than Scots in Scotland.”

Jonathan and Emily Seitz are PCUSA mission coworkers in Taiwan and will be visiting scholars at Princeton Theological Seminary during the coming year. Jonathan has family in Birmingham and often visits. He will share for about a half hour on world Christianity today and PCUSA World Mission and then there will be about an hour for discussion.

Please sign up by August 16 using this Google Form. Bring $2 for coffee. For questions contact Jonathan directly: jonathan.seitz@pcusa.org.
